Road-trip on Nationale 7

As a majestic way to the castle, the mythic Road Nationale 7, sung by Trénet, forms a backbone in Pays de Lapalisse, an unmissable part of its History and its cultural heritage.

Infact, in the fifties and sixties, the town was famous for its traffic-jam, created by holiday-makers in the direction of the South of France. This automobile time, even if difficult, matches in reality an happy time of technical, economical and social development, enabling an increasing access to the car and to the holidays.

In this way, the « Pays des Vérités » develops in ordre to make the drivers' life easier : welcome in numerous cafés, restaurants, hotels (Grand Café du Pont, Hôtel de l'Ecu...), campsite, illumination of the castle from the fifties, sweats tasting...

Nowadays, for more than 15 years, the biennial event of Lapalisse Traffic-Jam, born from the History of the town, rests on a strong image, marked by originality, memory and way of life. This heritage has become known by the public, and a lot of promotion and restoration initiatives of the road remains, private or volontary, multiply. With this in mind, we develop each year new ways for live the holidays road.
